

One—at night, when he sat crouched within his easy-chair in his own room, pacing up and down with the sleek astuteness of a tiger caged and ferocious, well fed but distrustful?

happy as a couple of children. "I don't care what the world says," the earl and countess say. "I've done the proper thing, and I was made for one another!" He rattled on in his eager, simple, wholly unconscious of the pallor of Melbourne, Louisa.

Menziez, Annie. Annie Joskaon, c.o.
Mordaunt, M. Mr.
Mutch, Geo., W.
Murphy, Gerald, 4.
Nallian, Dick, Mr.
Newton, F. S., Mr.

ROYALTIES DINE WITH PRIMATE.
London, Feb. 23.—The King and Queen this evening dined with the Archbishop of Canterbury at Lambeth Palace. As the Duke and Duchess of work the Majesties visited Archbishop Benson there, but have now set a precedent by becoming the Primate's guest at a dinner party. There have been at least thirty recorded visits to the palace by Queen Elizabeth Teacher—Jane, can you tell me who succeeded Edward VI.? Jane—Mary. Teacher—Now, Lucy, who followed Mary? Lucy (absent-mindedly) Her lamb.—The Theosophical APh.

Would You Be Interested?

If a man came to your desk and showed you a pen or pencil that would add or subtract in a trice!

Of course you would; anybody would!

We have no such pen or pencil, but we have something better. We have a typewriter which does all this, and you know that the typewriter is three times as fast as any pen or pencil. This typewriter is the

Remington

Adding and Subtracting
Typewriter

(With Added Mechanism)

This machine adds or subtracts and writes; not only that but it adds or subtracts while it writes. Both operations are done by the same mechanism. You need this machine in your work every day. It saves time, saves labor, detects errors, prevents errors, gives you a mechanical insurance of absolute accuracy.

We used ready to give this machine a test as your own; a test which will convince you that you need it.

Remington Typewriter Company (Limited)
177 King Street East, Hamilton, Ont.

GEORGIAN BAY ROUTE WANTED BY SIR WILFRID

Woman Pleads With Borden for Burial of Sailor Brother at Home.

Government Spent More on N. T. R. Than Estimated—A Militia Case.

Ottawa, Feb. 23.—"I would not be doing justice to myself, to the department over which I have the honor to preside, to my colleagues, or to Parliament," said Hon. Robert Borden, in speaking to-night of the Georgian Bay Canal project which Sir Wilfrid Laurier had urged upon the attention of the Government earlier in today's sitting of the House, "if I came with a recommendation regarding this great work without first having made a thorough investigation made as to the commercial feasibility of the undertaking."

Mr. Rogers went on to say that the Commission would be an honorary one, and would be appointed shortly. He did not believe, he said, that any long delay would be necessary as a result of the Commission's appointment. Even if the Commission were unable to report at a comparatively early date upon the commercial aspect of the project as a whole, they would probably also to prepare a report dealing with a portion of the main project, and in dealing upon his own course in regard to the canal he would be guided by their findings.

SIR WILFRID'S INVESTIGATION.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in bringing the question before the House, drew attention to the fact that so far the Government had given no indication of any intention to carry out the project with the many requests for action in respect to the construction of the canal. He pointed out that the Commission was a statement that another Commission was to be appointed, but that the Commission of the House that several such bodies had already reported on the project, had supplied a great quantity of information.

He knew, he said, that representations were made that the Government's efforts should be devoted to the Lawrence route, and nothing was being done to develop the Georgian Bay Canal and the Ottawa River. As a matter of fact, the Government does not need simply the Lawrence route or the Georgian Bay route, but it needs both to handle the increasing volume of Canadian business. As matters are, the Government is directed to build a canal from Port William to Montreal which is about 200 miles long. The difference is not sufficient to be a factor against the Ottawa River.

"I approve of the Ottawa River scheme altogether," said Sir Wilfrid, "but I of the country's future that I have no hesitation to say that every possible advantage that we have in our natural transportation resources must be secured."

Mr. Laurier (Nicolas), followed by Sir Wilfrid, gave emphatic support to the canal project. He pointed out that the property in the Georgian Bay area was owned by the Government, and that the difference in cost between the two routes was not significant. He pointed out that the difference in cost between the two routes was not significant. He pointed out that the difference in cost between the two routes was not significant.

Clear that a drastic investigation is MINISTER DEFENDS; COURTS IN QUIRY.

Col. Hughes, in reply, declared that as a matter of fact it was as far as the Longueuil site from Montreal as the site which was purchased at Dorval. The latter property he described as suitable for the purpose for which it was to be put, while the Longueuil ground was anything but suitable because of the low level of the ground. Part of this latter property, he said, is to be used for the purpose of the Montreal Harbour Commission. In looking for suitable property near Montreal, the fact that it had been found that there was none which could be acquired for less than $1,200 an acre, and that many of the sites asked were much higher.

INCREASED THE COST.

In reply to the Hon. Geo. P. Graham in the Commons, the Minister of Railways, Hon. Frank Cochrane, said that the total amount expended up to the end of last year was $1,000,000. The amount expended on the National Transcontinental Railway, up to the end of last year was $1,000,000. The amount expended on the National Transcontinental Railway, up to the end of last year was $1,000,000. The amount expended on the National Transcontinental Railway, up to the end of last year was $1,000,000.

Apparently the present Government's estimate of the total cost of the project is $1,000,000. The amount expended on the National Transcontinental Railway, up to the end of last year was $1,000,000. The amount expended on the National Transcontinental Railway, up to the end of last year was $1,000,000. The amount expended on the National Transcontinental Railway, up to the end of last year was $1,000,000.

The Minister of Justice told Mr. E. N. MacDonald (Peters) that on January 18th last there were fourteen officers of the militia on board the Niobe and 150 men. The officers on duty at the Halifax and Col. J. D. Hazen, told Mr. E. N. MacDonald (Peters) that on January 18th last there were fourteen officers of the militia on board the Niobe and 150 men.

A SAD STORY.

Politics, death, burial, and his Majesty's Canadian naval service are all mixed up in the story of the death of a young man this afternoon. It deals with the case of a young man who was killed in a naval accident. The story is a sad one, and it is a story that is being told in the House of Commons.

On the same day Premier Borden received the following letter from Sir Wilfrid Laurier: "Dear Sir—Could you not put the body of Joseph Leblanc at rest in the cemetery at Port Hope, Ontario, on 22nd August in General Hospital of Montreal in his own place of burial? He is a man of Montreal, and it is all a matter of a few miles. A couple of years ago he was killed in a naval accident. The story is a sad one, and it is a story that is being told in the House of Commons."

THE MARCH CENTURY.

The March Century is a good all-around number. It contains no less than nine short stories, among them "The Education of a Young Man" by G. Wells, "The Quality of Genius" by Katherine Hildred Brown, "The Education of a Young Man" by G. Wells, "The Quality of Genius" by Katherine Hildred Brown.

Fatality of Whoooping Cough

Many parents think lightly of whooping cough, but it is a very serious disease. It is a disease that is being told in the House of Commons. It is a disease that is being told in the House of Commons. It is a disease that is being told in the House of Commons.

BENEFIT CASE UP TO STATES

Britain Trusts Wilson to Secure Redress.

CAN'T GET BODY

Though U. S. State Department Asks for It.

London, Feb. 23.—The history of the Benton affair, as continued in the information furnished to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, British Ambassador to the United States, by the State Department at Washington was communicated in official form to the House of Commons to-day by Sir Edward Grey.

With the British Foreign Secretary's report, Sir Cecil Spring-Rice's report, the House of Commons was informed of the Benton affair, as continued in the information furnished to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, British Ambassador to the United States, by the State Department at Washington.

Mr. Edward Grey added that Mr. Benton, while declining responsibility for the Benton affair, had promised to look into the matter, and expressed deep regret at the outcome.

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

BENEFIT CASE UP TO STATES

Britain Trusts Wilson to Secure Redress.

CAN'T GET BODY

Though U. S. State Department Asks for It.

London, Feb. 23.—The history of the Benton affair, as continued in the information furnished to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, British Ambassador to the United States, by the State Department at Washington was communicated in official form to the House of Commons to-day by Sir Edward Grey.

With the British Foreign Secretary's report, Sir Cecil Spring-Rice's report, the House of Commons was informed of the Benton affair, as continued in the information furnished to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, British Ambassador to the United States, by the State Department at Washington.

Mr. Edward Grey added that Mr. Benton, while declining responsibility for the Benton affair, had promised to look into the matter, and expressed deep regret at the outcome.

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Sir John Bess asked whether Sir Edward Grey had any information concerning other Europeans who are in the Benton affair.

"No, sir, but I have already telegraphed to Sir Cecil Spring-Rice asking for his consideration what steps might be possible to ascertain the whereabouts of these people."

Riversides Here on Monday Night Riversides Here on Monday Night Riversides Here on Monday Night

Toronto Team Will Be Seen in Action Here— Centennials at Paris To-night.

The officials of the Hamilton Hockey Club completed arrangements for a game with the Toronto Riversides, and the game will be staged here to-morrow night at the Alert Arena. The hockey club at first intended to have the game staged here on Friday night, but on account of the big game at Toronto between St. Mike and the R. B. and the fact that night had to be forgotten, as the Riverside players have tickets for the struggle, and to-morrow night was decided on as the night in which to play the game.

The Riversides have a fast aggregation of players, and have the honor of being the only team that should prove a good drawing card when they play here.

On account of the hockey club being out of the running, the game to-morrow night will not cause as much interest as the victory here. The game will be a good match, and as there are several Hamilton fans who witnessed the Riversides in action, and they think they will be a good match for the players, and will make them play on the ice, and get away with a win if they are playing on their own ice.

Dryden, who played in the Brantford game against the Centennials at the first of the season, will play in the action with the Hamilton boys to-night, and will not be known until the game starts. Dryden is going to play with the Centennials in the consolation series, and will play with them at Paris to-night.

The Centennials will leave for Paris this afternoon, and the Hamilton boys will be in the city to-morrow night. The game will be a good match, and as there are several Hamilton fans who witnessed the Riversides in action, and they think they will be a good match for the players, and will make them play on the ice, and get away with a win if they are playing on their own ice.

They will also play in Preston on Friday night, and on Wednesday night.

With the Trainers Regal Labels Won Two From the Kitties— Herald Took Two From Times—The Scores.

Regal Labels and Home Outfitters Co. teams were the winners in the Brunswick and the Times. The Kitties and the Herald took two from the Times. The scores:

Regal Labels (won two)
1. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
2. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
3. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
4. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
5. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
6. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
7. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
8. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
9. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
10. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
11. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
12. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
13. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
14. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
15. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
16. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
17. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
18. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
19. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
20. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
21. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
22. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
23. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
24. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
25. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
26. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
27. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
28. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
29. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
30. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
31. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
32. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
33. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
34. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
35. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
36. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
37. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
38. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
39. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
40. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
41. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
42. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
43. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
44. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
45. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
46. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
47. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
48. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
49. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
50. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
51. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
52. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
53. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
54. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
55. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
56. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
57. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
58. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
59. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
60. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
61. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
62. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
63. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
64. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
65. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
66. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
67. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
68. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
69. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
70. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
71. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
72. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
73. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
74. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
75. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
76. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
77. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
78. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
79. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
80. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
81. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
82. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
83. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
84. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
85. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
86. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
87. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
88. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
89. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
90. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
91. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
92. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
93. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
94. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
95. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
96. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
97. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
98. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
99. Williams	120	126	132	138	144
100. Williams	120	126	132	138	144

A ROYAL RESERVE REBUT.

Captain Harry Viseau claims to have the record.

He says he has won 100 games.

He says he has won 100 games.

He says he has won 100 games.

He says he has won 100 games.

He says he has won 100 games.

He says he has won 100 games.

He says he has won 100 games.

He says he has won 100 games.

He says he has won 100 games.

He says he has won 100 games.

He says he has won 100 games.

He says he has won 100 games.

He says he has won 100 games.

He says he has won 100 games.

He says he has won 100 games.

He says he has won 100 games.

Stoker Will Bowl for Love of Game

Ten-Game Marathons Are Causing Ill Feelings.

To the Editor of the Times:

Dear Sir,—I would ask you to kindly publish the following letter in your valuable columns, so that there may be no misunderstanding regarding the advertised bowling match between J. Conway and myself for next Friday night.

While I am not desirous of a newspaper contest, I feel that I should take some such action as the following:

I positively refused to meet Conway on last Saturday night, and I refused to meet him on Sunday, and I refused

to meet him on Monday, and I refused

to meet him on Tuesday, and I refused

to meet him on Wednesday, and I refused

to meet him on Thursday, and I refused

to meet him on Friday, and I refused

to meet him on Saturday, and I refused

to meet him on Sunday, and I refused

to meet him on Monday, and I refused

to meet him on Tuesday, and I refused

to meet him on Wednesday, and I refused

to meet him on Thursday, and I refused

to meet him on Friday, and I refused

to meet him on Saturday, and I refused

to meet him on Sunday, and I refused

to meet him on Monday, and I refused

to meet him on Tuesday, and I refused

to meet him on Wednesday, and I refused

to meet him on Thursday, and I refused

to meet him on Friday, and I refused

to meet him on Saturday, and I refused

to meet him on Sunday, and I refused

to meet him on Monday, and I refused

to meet him on Tuesday, and I refused

to meet him on Wednesday, and I refused

to meet him on Thursday, and I refused

to meet him on Friday, and I refused

to meet him on Saturday, and I refused

to meet him on Sunday, and I refused

to meet him on Monday, and I refused

to meet him on Tuesday, and I refused

to meet him on Wednesday, and I refused

to meet him on Thursday, and I refused

to meet him on Friday, and I refused

to meet him on Saturday, and I refused

to meet him on Sunday, and I refused

to meet him on Monday, and I refused

to meet him on Tuesday, and I refused

to meet him on Wednesday, and I refused

to meet him on Thursday, and I refused

to meet him on Friday, and I refused

to meet him on Saturday, and I refused

to meet him on Sunday, and I refused

to meet him on Monday, and I refused

to meet him on Tuesday, and I refused

to meet him on Wednesday, and I refused

to meet him on Thursday, and I refused

to meet him on Friday, and I refused

to meet him on Saturday, and I refused

to meet him on Sunday, and I refused

to meet him on Monday, and I refused

to meet him on Tuesday, and I refused

to meet him on Wednesday, and I refused

to meet him on Thursday, and I refused

to meet him on Friday, and I refused

to meet him on Saturday, and I refused

to meet him on Sunday, and I refused

to meet him on Monday, and I refused

to meet him on Tuesday, and I refused

to meet him on Wednesday, and I refused

to meet him on Thursday, and I refused

to meet him on Friday, and I refused

to meet him on Saturday, and I refused

to meet him on Sunday, and I refused

to meet him on Monday, and I refused

to meet him on Tuesday, and I refused

to meet him on Wednesday, and I refused

to meet him on Thursday, and I refused

Frontenacs Drop Out When They Lose Protest Lodged by Oshawa.

Toronto, Feb. 24.—At a meeting of the sub-committee of the O.H.A. yesterday morning the protest of Oshawa against the Frontenacs was sustained, and the club was ordered to play a sudden death game at Belleville tomorrow night.

Oshawa's protest was directed against the Frontenacs, of the Kingston team, on the ground that they were ineligible under the rules of the O.H.A.

It was shown that the Frontenacs had worked in the Cobalt mines for ten days in December for their team, an assessor at the Kingston team.

Manager Sutherland was greatly pleased by the decision. The players held a meeting and after a long conversation with the officials in Kingston, it was decided to first appeal to the O.H.A. executive, and if that failed, to then appeal to the referee of the case, to retire from the competition.

The Oshawa's request for a hearing before the O.H.A. executive was re-

